BOND MARKET VERY FIRM

Favorable Turn of Far Eastern Situation and Local Money Helped Price of Stocks.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—The slock market responded to day to the favorable turn of sentiment abroad over the For Liastern of sentiment abroad over the Far Palacett outlook, and the notable strengthening of the local money situation. There was a more active and a broader market and during the final hour the trading took of something like an imitation. The same of something the an imitation. The same striking preferences for stocks of minor railroads and industrials for speculative mo ements that has been in evidence for of the trading.

York Central and Louisville and Nathvale achieved a one point movement early in the day, but it was not until in the last hour of the session that Et Paul moved up 1 3 d. This exhausts the lists of standard tailroad stocks which made any movement worthy of no-the lists of standard tailroad stocks which made any movement worthy of notice.

The Rock Island stocks were taken riscitosity, n hand, evidently for a speculative campagn, the common being litted 18-5 and the preferred 3 1-2. The bonds of the Rock Island group of companies made even me e sensitional advances, the nives scoring an upward bound of 4 1-2 and the fours 3 points. The Industrial department of the snartet was rather trader but was considerable overshadowed by the heavy dealings in United Ricter Steel profid. The eno-mous apporphenois of the corporation's account mortgage 5 per cent, bonds had a marked sympathetic effect on the preferred stock. The parvalue of the day's sales of the United States Steel second exceeded that of the first of the bonds sold Juring the day. This movement was induced by the amountmement, that the comds had been made in the first of the bonds was in contemplation a similar expectation was an important element in the Rock Island movement.

Apalgamated Coppor rose a point. The faw gaaroads roporting gross earnings for the second week in January made a more responding periods that was the case with the first week's carnings. BACK BAY, VA, Jan. 18.—It has just been reported on good authority that E. R. Ward, recently elected sheriff in the last county election, is dead. Mr. Ward had entered upon the duties of his office and qualified the first of the year. Full particulars cannot at this writing be obtained. He was found dead at his home. Mr. Ward lived in Kempsville District and in the neighborhood known as Salem. He was from a prominent family, was a good citizen, and a reliable, upright man in all respects. (By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—Charged with robbing the dead and dying at the Iroquois Theatro fire, three men have been placed under arrests by the Chicago police. The Eldred Gianniny. first of alleged ghouls to be captured was Louis Witz, keeper of the Illinois saloon, located at Dearborne and Randolph Streets, a few doors from the main entrance of the stheatre. It is charged that Witz robbed the body of a dying woman, Mrs. F. J. Trask, the afternoon of the fire, securing $190, which it is alleged was divided among three men, two of whom were arrested after Witz. The police claim, to have received confessions from all three men.

CHANGE WILL SOON BE MADE

The last term of the Henrico County Court, now in progress, will probably end on January 27th. The criminal decket has been cleaned up, and not a great deal of civil business remains.

The Circuit Court began its term yesterday under Judge Wellford, After February 1st Judge Wellford will retire ruary ist Judge Wickham, who will go out with Judge Wickham, who will go out with the County Court. The new Circuit Court, with Judge R. Carrer Scott on the bench, will begin work with the opening of the new month.

The case of D. J. Jones, charg'd with forgery, was examined yesterday by Sautre James T. Lewis, and was sent on to the grand jury. Ball was fixed in the sum of $1,000.

A break in the wires on the Seven Pines line caused considerable delay yesterday. The wires are said to be in bad condition owing to the fact that prope ty holders along the route refuse to let the company put up new poles.
